SKELMANTHORPE

GOD'S OWN COUNTY

This part of West Yorkshire has never been more popular. With its revitalised towns and cities, charming rural villages, and stunning landscapes it's easy to see why Yorkshire is known as God's own county. Skelmanthorpe exemplifies this appeal - it is surrounded by beautiful scenery from gentle, rolling hills to wilder moorland uplands, including a famous landmark, the Emley Moor Transmitting Station which can be seen from the development. And not far away are the magnificent Peak District and the Pennines, perfect for hiking, cycling or riding – or just for a family day out and a picnic. Near the village itself, you'll find Whistlestop Valley where you can experience steam train travel courtesy of the Kirklees Light Railway, as well as a range of other exciting activities to make it the perfect day out for all the family.

THE DESTINATION FOR ARTS, MUSIC AND MORE...

The Yorkshire Sculpture Park at Bretton Hall is only a short drive away and you can wander through acres of parkland, immersing yourself in an extraordinary collection of sculpture from artists including Elisabeth Frink and Anthony Gormley. In nearby Wakefield, you can continue the artistic theme by visiting the Hepworth Gallery, in memory of famous local sculptor and artist, Barbara Hepworth, or Cannon Hall, an imposing Georgian house which houses a museum for fine and decorative arts with a magnificent park and gardens open to the public.

Huddersfield is only eight miles away and is rapidly becoming a destination town with an exciting programme of annual events including the UK's largest contemporary music festival and a stand-out literature festival. Architectural gems include the Victorian railway station, as praised by John Betjeman, and the Byram Arcade in the town centre, which is not only worth a visit in its own right but it also houses three floors of independent shops, cafés, bars and restaurants. Both rugby and football fans are well catered for with local rugby union and football clubs and the town is also the home of rugby league, with its local team, the Huddersfield Giants. There is certainly no shortage of things to do or see, come rain or shine!

HOW TO PURCHASE

Buying a new Lovell home couldn't be easier. Follow our guide and you'll be home in no time!

CHOOSE AND RESERVE

Secure your new home with a reservation fee which goes towards the total purchase price. It's then reserved in your name while the legal processes are completed.

KEEPING THINGS MOVING

Pass our Sales Executive your solicitor's details so that we can send on the contract documents. Arrange your mortgage if you need one. You can do this yourself or we can put you in touch with an Independent Mortgage Advisor to help.

EXCHANGING CONTRACTS

Once you've had your formal mortgage offer, your solicitor will inform you when it's time to exchange contracts. You will now pay your deposit, which will be sent to us with your signed contract.

NEARLY THERE

Under the terms of the contract we need to allow time for financial completion. Once this has happened, we will ask your solicitor to request funds and pay the balance of the purchase price. The deeds are transferred into your name and you now own your new Lovell home!

MOVING IN

We will arrange for your meters to be read on the day of legal completion. Our Sales Executive will hand you the keys and a handover certificate.
